Serving the Hub of the West Valley Since 1895

Vol. 78 No. 13 | Wednesday, April 1, 1970 | 10¢

A REAL DONNYBROOK is in the making in this county over the proposal by the City of San Jose to construct a major jetport squarely at the south end of San Francisco Bay...in the Alviso-Milpitas area.

The plan calls for a 7000 acre facility that will serve 42 million people by 2000!

Milpitas city officials, of course, are leading the battle against the airport and they are gaining considerable support.

An organization called "Save Our Valley Action Committee" has been formed to combat the San Jose position and committee members are seeking support through petitions that will be submitted to the San Jose City Council.

Those opposed to the airport location claim that it would be difficult to find a worse site for such a facility.

Arguments that are listed against the proposed airport are impressive:

Opponents emphasize that there will be severe air traffice problems because of the proximity to other jetports; that it will also destroy the ecology of the area; interfere with or endanger existing publicly funded institutions; do severe damage to neighboring communities; and entail massive engineering problems to build and maintain.

WE AGREE WITH THE opponents to the proposed jetport and think that the statements used in the petition to the San Jose City Council are especially apropos:

"... We believe (the undersigned) that one more jetport would be injurious to the welfare, peace, safety and sanity of the citizens of the South San Francisco Bay Area.

"We believe that there must be a solution to the transportation of people that does not endanger their well-being, and it is the responsibility of our public servants to find that compatible solution."

"Therefore, we urge your opposition to the creation of another jet airport and to the expansion of the existing San Jose Airport to major jetport facilities."

We don't know what effect, if any, the petition will have on the San Jose city councilmen.

But an airport to serve 42 million in our valley?

Where's our pen?

"ONE VERY SICK ANImal"—That's the way a designer-engineer from Campbell recently described the single-family home at a recent Environmental Design Seminar in San Jose.

The seminar was co-sponsored by the American Wood Council and the Santa Clara County Wood Promotion Council.

Paul Frechette, head of Guild West which operates out of Campbell, was one of the speakers.

Frechette and an architect, Robert W. Hayes, maintained that the single-family home of the past is gone and claimed that it was pushing cities into economic disaster.

Frechette also added that current developments which are successful are those which give the buyer a turn-key deal (all improvements in), chiefly town houses and cluster units.

While we concede that there have been changes in the thinking of people in recent years with respect to their residential requirements and desires, we are not yet ready to throw our key away and to concede that the single-family home is completely out of the picture.

We get a little tired of these experts quoting facts and figures about how much more it costs a city to service a single-family home in comparison to apartment buildings.

We sincerely believe that

Planners to consider new shopping center

Plans for another complete shopping center (at San Tomas Road and Campbell Ave.) will be before the Planning Commission for approval next Monday night, April 6.

Preliminary plans that have been submitted by A. H. Wiener for J. L. Bryan call for a super-market, a theater and a bank plus other satellite facilities in the 120,000 square foot area.

The major portion of the center will face onto San Tomas Aquino Road but there will be entry also from Campbell Ave.

Also on the lengthy agenda for the Planning Commission meeting is the request of IBM for approval of a 10-unit modular (relocatable) office complex at IBM's card plant on Hacienda and Dell.

L. M. Hieva, of La Fonda restaurant, at Bascom and Campbell avenues, is also seeking approval of plans for the expansion of the restaurant and parking lot.

The Commission is also expected to set the first public hearing date for April 20 on proposed rezoning for the Gilman-Dillon-Railway area on which the interim zoning has been extended for 120 days by an urgency ordinance adopted by the City Council.

Involved also will be a modification of land use plan for the area, which under the general plan is now specified for multiple-housing. However, the zoning has never been changed from M-1-S, although the interim zoning, which has been in effect for more than a year, has, in effect, prohibited any permanent building in the area.

In two related matters before the Commission affecting the area are two applications for industrial buildings. One by Federal Home Savings is

AND A LITTLE CHILD SHALL LEAD THEM---These three junior citizens want a cleaner city to live in, and did their part by cleaning up the trash along Central Avenue. Then they appeared at City Hall and asked for more trash cans along public streets. They also suggest that people in public parks ought to use available trash cans instead of throwing trash on the ground.

Above are Joritta Chapple, 323 E. Grant St., and Virginia Cummings, with her small brother, from 229 N. Central Ave., showing the trash just from their stretch of Central Ave.

"New" Colonial Savings holds grand opening

Although Colonial Savings and Loan Association will mark the grand opening today (April 1) and for the next 10 days, of its new 6,000 square foot brick-faced building at 1510 S. Winchester Blvd., (just north of Hamilton Ave.), the firm has been operating at almost the same location for more than a year.

The firm is the first savings and loan association to locate in the Campbell area and until two weeks ago it operated from a 12-foot by 60-foot mobile home which was located on the edge of the property on which the attractive colonial-style building was constructed.

Jim Schafer, who is assistant vice-president of the firm, has been manager of the local branch from the beginning and with his staff will welcome visitors to the firm's spacious new quarters.

During the grand opening week, all visitors to the savings firm will receive gifts, either a book or an orchid. Many other valuable prizes will also be offered.

Keys to a special "treasure chest" are currently being distributed. (Look for a key on the firm's ad on page 12 of this issue.) Schafer emphasizes, however, that if a person does not get a key, he can get one by simply coming into the new office.

Free safe deposit boxes are also available to customers, Schafer points out.

Landscaping for the new Colonial quarters was done in a king-size way. More than 60 trees, some 20-feet high, plus almost 500 shrubs have been put in place since the building was completed.

The huge windows and the spacious, thick-carpeted lobby are attractive features of the interior. (More pictures of the office appear on page 5 of this issue.)

Three tellers will man the counter from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday.

There are seven branches of the savings firm in the Bay Area. The Campbell office is the first one in the Santa Clara Valley.

LaSala and Squire, a southern California architectural firm, designed the building. The interior decor was done by Scott DeLonais of Beverly Hills and Dickman Construction Co. were the builders.

This Thursday night

JayCees hold voters' forum

Sponsored by the Campbell JayCees, a "meet the candidates" forum for all those seeking election in the April 14 city election will be held this Thursday (April 2) at the Coventry School, starting at 8 p.m.

The school is located at 1125 W. Campbell Ave. between San Tomas Expressway and San Tomas Road.

Ken Mantle, former president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, will be the moderator of the program.

Joe Brundage is the JayCee chairman for the forum.

Each one of the three City Council candidates, Ralph Doetsch (incumbent), Bill Podgorsek and Kel Young will be given approximately five minutes to present statements, as will the two candidates for city treasurer, Mrs. Velma Olds (incumbent), and Mrs. Nadine Sargent, who is opposing her.

Mrs. Dorothy Trevethan, who has been city clerk since 1952 and again has no opposition on the April 14 ballot. She is seeking her fifth term.

Following the statements by the candidates, a question and answer period will take place in which members of the audience have been invited to participate.

At the close of the forum, according to Brundage, the audience will be able to meet the candidates while enjoying refreshments that will be provided.

KICK-OFF LUNCHEON---Rev. William H. (Ben) Gould (left) served as M.C. for the Youth Employment Service kick-off luncheon. With him at the head table are George Atkinson, Oakland Raiders and Governor Representative for "1970 Summer Jobs for Youth"; Joe McMullen, San Jose State football coach and Nick Roden, Campbell Chambell of Commerce YES chairman and manager of the Campbell Pacific Telephone branch.

Fund-raising luncheon kicks-off local youth employment program

Don't say "No" to YES, was the message given at the fund-raising kick-off luncheon for the Youth Employment Service sponsored by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce last Thursday.

More than 100 businessmen, members of the service clubs and school personnel turned out to hear George Atkinson, of the Oakland Raiders and the Governor's representative for youth and Joe McMullen, San Jose State football coach, urge that youth be given a chance to feel important.

Youth should be regarded as an investment, and with "ecology" such a big word in today's vocabulary, the resource of young people today should be used to the greatest advantage, according to McMullen.

The Rev. William H. (Ben) Gould served as M.C. for the luncheon and introduced the guest speakers. Also called on were last year's employers of youth during the past year.

Judy Rothwell Padgett, 1969 YES youth director stated that if all the 900 businesses in Campbell hired just one student during the summer, the 439 applicants for jobs last year would have all been placed. As it was, only 158 students worked, after applying for jobs.

A youth sign-up day at the Campbell High School is planned for the latter part of April at which time all teenagers between the ages of 14 and 17 desiring summer employment will have the opportunity to fill out application blanks.

A youth director will be selected from the applicants and the office will be taking job requests by the middle of May. Nick Roden of the Pacific Telephone Office is serving as YES chairman.

Boys rescued after night spent in boat

A night on the ocean in a seven-foot plywood boat is now part of the memories of three Campbell boys who survived the terrifying experience during the Easter vacation.

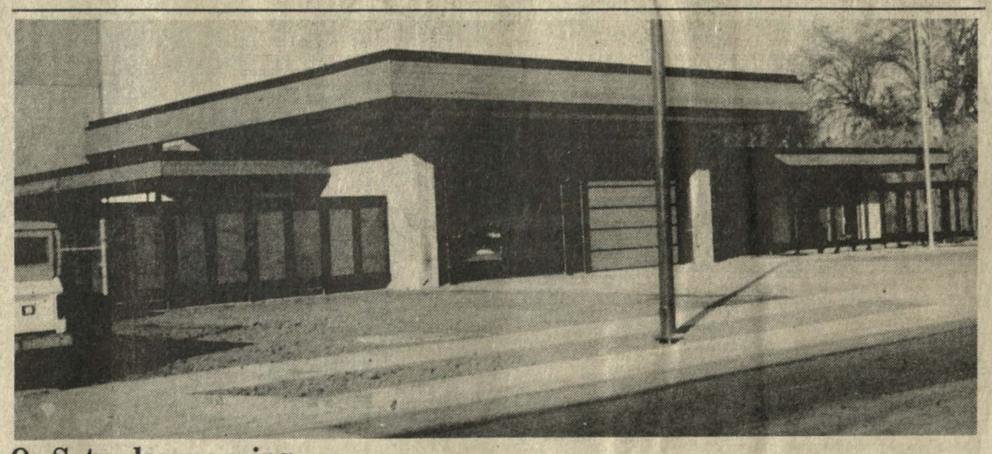
Thomas Chargin, 16, son of Lt. and Mrs. John M. Chargin, 1059 Bent Dr., Randy Hughes, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hughes, 1194 Bent Dr.; and Monte Denning, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denning, 1361 El Moro Dr., were all spending Easter week vacation at Capitola.

Thursday the three boys went for a boat ride, in the homemade boat powered by a 2½ horsepower outboard motor. The engine quit, and the boat drifted out in the bay.

Twenty mile an hour winds cancelled out rowing efforts. By nightfall they had drifted northward to Pleasure Point where they were spotted by people on the shore who called the Santa Cruz County Sheriff's office.

The Coast Guard was contacted and rescue planes dropped hundreds of flares over the bay throughout the night while boats criss-crossed the bay looking for the tiny boat.

The boys were not located until dawn when a helicopter piloted by Lt. Cmdr. James E. Mitts spotted them, still in the boat, 10 miles off Lighthouse Point. They were reeled aboard and reunited with their anxious parents who had spent the night watching the rescue efforts.



On Saturday morning

City to dedicate new fire station

Dedication of the new city of Campbell fire station on Sunnyoaks Avenue has been set for Saturday, April 4 at 10 a.m.

At that time the 6,000 square foot building which was constructed at a cost of $330,420 will be formally opened for fire protection for the Sunnyoaks industrial and residential area.

Opening ceremonies will be conducted by George R. Maxwell, fire chief. Cutting the ribbon will be Bob Bullard, Campbell Chamber of Commerce president. Conducting the flag raising ceremonies will be members of the Boy Scout Troop 377 of Hazelwood School.

Invocation will be given by the Rev. W. H. (Ben) Gould of the First United Methodist Church followed by a welcoming address by Homer H. Hyde, Campbell mayor, and a message from Robert C. Stephens, city manager.

Special recognition will be given to all who participated in the landscape planting by Mrs. Jeanette Watson, Campbell Citizens for Beautification chairman. Closing the formal ceremonies will be Father Leonard Bose, St. Lucy's pastor who will give the benediction.

During the day the fire station facilities will be open for tours until 6 p.m. The community is invited to attend the dedication ceremonies and visit the fire station during the day.

The fire training center is also located on the one-acre plot of ground with demonstrations being planned in the tower during the day. Firemen will be stationed throughout the buildings to answer questions and explain the new modern equipments. Red fire badges will be available for the children and the public is invited to tour the entire plant.

BANQUET PLANNED

A mother-daughter banquet will be held at Campbell Elementary School Thursday, April 7 at 6:30 p.m. An evening of entertainment is planned, and mothers and daughters can have a "night out together". Tickets will be sold at the door; adult $1, the daughters, 75 cents.

Park priorities

The City Council has approved the recommendation made by the Parks and Recreation Commission's Rincon Park sub-committee which specifies the type of recreational facilities that should be placed in Rincon Park. The landscape architect is now to locate the facilities in the overall park plan.

The list of facilities was presented by Henry Cary, chairman of the Rincon Park Development Committee. The facilities were submitted in order of priority.

The recommendations were based primarily on the survey that was conducted in February of this year, plus a previous survey that was taken in 1966.

Consideration was also given, of course, to previous commitments made by the community as to current use, i.e., the Pony League ball field.

The priority list was headed by the ball field, now a going concern. Two acres were allocated to that facility.

The next priority (three acres) went to picnic and barbecue areas.

Both citizen surveys had indicated that a picnic area was of prime concern to the local residents. It ranked first in both surveys.

One acre has been allotted to "senior citizen and garden area", an activity that ranked second in both surveys.

Although no building is planned, three-quarters of an acre has been reserved for "community center", an activity that was third in this year's survey and fourth in 1966.

A "kiddies playground", which ranked fourth in this year's survey and third in 1966, was allocated .6 acre.

Horseshoe courts (12) were approved for .3 acre. In the surveys, the courts ranked sixth this year and eighth in 1966.

One acre has been specified for eight lighted tennis courts. The survey ranked tennis courts seventh. They weren't listed in the 1966 questionnaire.

Other space allocations that have been made include - .5 acre reserved for Olympic size swimming pool; three acres for open field play; .5 acre for lighted softball diamond and .2 acre for amphitheater.

Four acres have been specified for landscaping and 1.5 acres for parking (150 cars).

Some additional space will be needed for rest rooms and maintenance buildings.

Cary, in his report to the City Council, added that the priorities adopted did not utilize the full 23.43 acres available in order to allow for some expansion.

The park chairman also suggested that wherever possible, an attempt should be made to include jogging trails; group picnic areas for camping; handball and tennis practice courts; and outdoor dancing and skating area.

We commend the hard-working Rincon Park and Development Committee for the intelligent approach to the problem of what facilities should be included in a community park.

It was based on the people's desire and that is the way it should be.

Rincon Park is a community park...Campbell's own. It should be developed the way the people indicate they want it.

The park committee has tried to do just that.

The recommendations now have been submitted to the landscape architect employed by the city to draft a master plan for the parks of the community.

The architect has been directed to place the facilities that have been specified in the proper locations in the park.

Obviously, a plan for the park is but the first of many long steps that must be taken before the facilities are in place and the citizens of the area can utilize it to the fullest extent.

We are well aware that to build the facilities that will appear on the park plan would cost more money than the city can afford at the present time.

Even if all the park bonds available were sold, only part of the program could be carried out.

But the priority list, followed by the master plan pinpointing the specific locations for the facilities, will provide an excellent guideline for the individuals and organizations of the community who now will be able to coordinate their efforts in developing civic projects.

It is possible to visualize various civic groups selecting different facilities as their own special community projects.

In that manner, much of the park could be developed without added expense to the taxpayer.

And work could be started almost as soon as the master plan was approved.

SPEAKING OF UP-DATing one's thinking.

We recently received a sample of what was described as the first new idea in panels in ages for newspapers.

The panel was titled "YOUR ESP".

According to the letter that came with the sample panels, "Everybody is now talking about their own ESP talents. Parapsychology is coming to the fore. Colleges are offering degrees in parapsychology..."

We must be somewhat out of it and traveling in the wrong crowd. We just didn't know that "everybody" was talking about ESP.

For the uninitiated, ESP is not a drug.

It stands for extrasensory perception and involves perception or communication outside of normal sensory activity, as in telepathy and clairvoyance.

It's a field that, frankly, we have not explored, nor have we known anyone who has...(We really must be square.)

We looked over the three samples sent out by the syndicate that was seeking to make The Press a client of the weekly panels.

You might be interested in what was in 'em.

ONE DESCRIBED A GUY in England back in 1930 who became invisible momentarily.

It seems this person started down the aisle in a church to where his parents were seated when, "to his surprise, clouds seemed to envelop his body. To everyone else he vanished, reappearing seconds later."

His parents and grandfather witnessed this disappearing act and which never could be explained.

Another panel told of a Siamese sergeant who had physical marks of an uncle who had died. It was claimed that the person had lived a previous life as his own uncle.

The third job specified that before George Washington became president he is reported to have seen a vision of an angel who admonished him "Son of the Republic, look and learn."

The story remained in the confidence of General Washington's officers until years later it was revealed after he had become president.

Admittedly the incidents in the samples made interesting reading.

And just because we look with skepticism and considerable disbelief on such tales, we don't dare knock it.

As we said, we have not been exposed to ESP in any shape or form even if "everybody is talking about their own ESP".

Maybe we just haven't been listening.

But that does not mean it doesn't exist either. But we didn't order the panels for the paper.

Flat tire traps thief at scene

Because of a flat tire a thief was caught. Early Thursday morning Charles Winfield Royce was apprehended at the rear of the Top Tool Rentals shop, 954 Camden Ave. His car was jacked up and he apparently was fixing a flat tire.

A search of the premises revealed that to begin with the tool rentals shop had been forcibly entered, tools removed and change removed from the coin machines and the jack being used on the car was part of the stolen equipment.

Further search of Royce's car revealed various pieces of luggage, boxes, adding machines and kitchen utencils carried in the back of the car. Royce then admitted to arresting officer Rex Noyer that a putty can contained a number of pieces of jewelry, all wrapped in plastic.

Royce was booked at the Santa Clara County jail on at least two counts of robbery.

Our ESP just wasn't strong enough yet.

APPARENTLY AFfiliated with the syndicate that sent out the panels is another organization called "Meridian of Truth", based in Tulsa, Okla. According to an accompanying blurb, it is a research unit that is delving into all areas of the human mind and is encouraging groups to form in other cities to collect information from people who have had any paranormal experiences.

They would be interested whether you've seen a ghost lately, felt a presence, spoken in tongues or had conscious memories of being someone else in a former life.

Also mentioned was whether a person had "done automatic writing". Now that's where we come in.

Some of our friends and/or readers will probably maintain (with some justification) that some of our columns appear to be "automatic writing" at times written while in a paranormal state.

Unfortunately, as much as we would like to claim at times that we weren't responsible for the contents of this column because we had been in a hypnotic state or something, so far the column has been turned out while we were our usual normal self.

And, you know something, we find it trying enough just dealing with normal people like us, without getting involved with those who complicate matters with any psychic phenomena.

Letters to the Editor

THANK YOU

Dear Editor

Over the past few years, the Campbell Police Department has tried many programs to promote a better police-community relations. They have taken the form of visiting the various elementary schools, visiting the classes in high schools in a program to combat the drug abuse problem, and finally we have seen their program of a public relations van.

I have left out one program that they use in their efforts. This is the police seminar. It has been implemented in Campbell to bring about a good rapport between the police officers and the community.

Various topics are discussed in the seminar and I believe that they are of great value. The greatest value, however, comes when the citizen is allowed to ride in the police car with an officer during his shift.

We see a personalization of the relations because the officer is actually viewed by the citizen as he really is, and not how people say that he is. I guess that my entire point in writing is to show my appreciation for what Chief John Morgan has done.

Thanks should also be extended to Sgt. Knox who has run these seminars. The entire force has shown a willingness to listen, learn, and do what they can to bridge the lack of confidence in them.

Their actions are highly commendable and I hope that more citizens will take advantage of this program.

Sincerely,
Rusty Hammer, Chm.

STUDENT REACTION

Dear Editor:

I would like to comment on the article presented in the Campbell Press, March 18, concerning the week-long activities at Rolling Hills Junior High School, March 9-13.

I am a student at Rolling Hills and I would like to inform Mrs. Deloris Feak, that the program was not "idiocy" to the majority of the students and their parents.

If we had been "immature children," participating in "emotional mass protests," nothing would have been accomplished. We at Rolling Hills, teachers and students, feel that we have accomplished something significant. We recognize the importance of preserving what unpolluted air, water and soil that we have left. We realize that we need to DO something about pollution, instead of just talking.

You said our program was "almost hysterical". Hysteria is a severe mental disorder, and very definite. During the planning and participation of the week we did not reach this level.

You also mentioned "today ecology - tomorrow what?" If we don't do something about ecology today - tomorrow will be too late.

Also, people who consider conservation measures hysterical are polluting our environment more than we can imagine.

Sincerely,
Barbara Wade

The Commission is also expected to consider the proposed civic center and a zoning ordinance that has been continued from previous hearings and to set a hearing date for the pre-annexation zoning for an area on Smith Ave. (Lovell 70-2) adjacent to the present city limits.

R. L. Bruntz is asking for extension of time for his proposed 8-unit apartment complex at 1305 W. Campbell Ave. and Melvin E. Snyder is asking for a variance to build a second story on his home at 405 Payne Ave.

Southern June Wedding

SHARON REBECCA TOWNLEY

A June wedding in Virginia is being planned by Sharon Rebecca Townley and Sgt. John David Adamson.

Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mellicue Samuel Townley, Sr., of Bastian, Virginia. She received a B. S. degree in Elementary education at Lee College, Cleveland, Tennessee and is presently employed by Bland School District, Bland, Virginia.

Sgt. Adamson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Leslie Adamson, 120 Calle Marguerita, Los Gatos. A 1965 Westmont High School graduate, he attended West Valley Jr. College before entering the U. S. Marine Corp. He has recently returned from his second tour of duty in Vietnam where he was awarded three Purple Hearts. He is presently stationed in Memphis, Tennessee, studying in the aviation school.

Mr. and Mrs. Townley, Sr., and family are planning on attending the wedding.

National beautification director visits Campbell on official visit

"Involvement" was the key word left by Richard Hackendahl, National Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up director who visited Campbell briefly last week as part of his four month tour of the United States to see what is actually going on.

Involve the community, involve the children, involve the youth–and get people to do their thing–toward beautification and clean-up of the town, and then it will be something of their own accomplishment.

GET INVOLVED--was the message left by Richard Hackendahl, National Clean-up, Paint-up and Fix-up director, who stopped in Campbell briefly last week as part of his four months tour of the United States. Above Hackendahl, center, is seen at lunch with Mrs. Ruth Hartman, vice-chairman of the Campbell Citizens for Beautification committee and Mrs. Jeanne Kennedy, chairman of the Business Beautification division. Hackendahl emphasized that getting citizens involved in cleaning up their town was one of the keys to success in any program.

Hackendahl also stressed that different approaches had to be made toward different problems, but the first step was to define the problem.

After that, in many cases he cited, the source of the problem could quite often be asked as to how the situation could be improved.

When questioned concerning undergrounding of utilities in downtown areas, he replied that as of vet no downtown area has underground utilities, because the utilities involved have so far stated the cost is prohibitive.

According to Hackendahl, signs "no longer sell, they identify", and such criteria should be applied to all sign applicants.

Hackendahl gave a brief run-down on the national clean-up organization which originally started with the spring cleaning concept in St. Louis in 1912. The non-profit organization's total concern is to get the communities to "self-help" themselves to beauty.

The cooperation of architects in the area could be of great help in carrying out the city concepts of beautification, Hackendahl pointed out. For instance, since the scattering of service station wipes in this area is one of great concern, architects could be asked to include center aisle waste receptacles in all future plans–and at the same time the planning commission could require it before approving plans.

Present for the luncheon meeting were Don Hebard, Campbell City Planning Commission chairman; Homer Hyde, Campbell mayor; Neal Royer, Campbell elementary school superintendent and Chamber of Commerce past president; Mrs. Jeanette Watson, Campbell Citizens for Beautification chairman; Dean Chamberlin, City of Campbell vice-mayor; Len Edholm, Chamber of Commerce manager; Carl Kuhn, assistant to the Campbell City manager; Mrs. Ruth Hartman, vice-chairman of the beautification committee; Mrs. Jeanne Kennedy, chairman of the business committee for beautification and Gene Borden, Campbell city fire marshal.

DEAN'S LIST

Terry Brink, a junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee L. Brink, 1251 Capri Drive, and James Chamberlin, a junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean R. Chamberlin, 103 N. Carlyn Ave., have both been named to the fall semester Dean's List at Claremont Men's College.

Rebekahs enjoy Easter meeting

Three new candidates will be received into the Ada Rebekah Lodge No. 223 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at the April 7 meeting. Hostesses for the evening will be the Stitching Club.

At the March meeting the lodge members were guests of the auxiliary, with an Easter motif being carried out in the hall and dining room decorations. Chocolate Easter eggs were passed by two Easter Bunnies in keeping with the Easter theme. Marty Pershing and Mrs. Richard Burwick served as chairmen for the evening.

A history of the order was given by Larence Faulkner and several Irish songs were played by Dennis Smith on the guitar.

On March 25 the Ada Rebekah Kitchen Band met with other district Rebekah Lodge members for a good-fellowship program.

PRESENTATION -- Richard Hackendahl, National Clean-up, Paint-up and Fix-up Director presented the Honorable Mention award won by Campbell during the recent national contest. Hackendahl remarked it was the largest entry from one of the smallest towns, as well as one of the best presented efforts.

Easter visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Fitch, 1173 Lovell Ave., included their granddaughter, Cathi Ann Foster from Reno who arrived March 20 to visit in Campbell. She was joined later in the week by her mother, Mrs. Virginia Foster. Both returned home on Friday.

Contest opens for flag design

A contest for a design to be used as the City of Campbell flag is now under way, sponsored by the Campbell Citizens for Beautification Committee.

Entries may be submitted by mail or in person to Carl F. Kuhn, assistant to the city manager, 75 N. Central Ave., on or before April 20, 1970.

The winning design will be announced on April 29 and a $10 prize presented to the winner. If approved by the Campbell City council, the committee will have flags made to fly over the municipal buildings.

The Saturday hike up the Los Gatos Creek was quite successful, with approximately 75 people turning out for the creek walk.

The Beautification Committee presently is looking for a chairman for the home beautification contest. Interested persons may contact Kuhn at 378-8141.

So, you're going to have puppies !! Or, rather your dog is !!

Making preparations for a litter of puppies can be a pleasant project for the whole family. (Dad, that means you, too!)

The mama-to-be usually wants a quiet corner for her brood (once you've pulled them out from under the bed where she insisted on whelping.)

If she's to be in the house, don't force her into a heavy traffic area, but give her a spot where visitors won't be inclined to rush up and disturb her.

If she's an "outside" dog, fix her a big box in the garage, one which she can easily leave and not worry that her pups will crawl under the dryer.

An old playpen, lined with cardboard on the sides and bottom and covered with newspapers will do. However, this means she'll have to be lifted (unless she's a big dog) out for exercise. In winter, a light bulb placed high over the "nest" can cut down on the cold.

Although mother dog will do most of the work the first few weeks, there are some do's and don't's.

First, accompany her on her trips out of doors and make sure she exercises. Her body functions are very important and just "putting her out" doesn't guarantee they are performing.

If she must exercise in an area that other animals use, wipe her feet and nipples with a clean cloth before she returns to her brood.

She should always have water within easy reach, and, it is my contention that a nursing bitch should have all she wants to eat.

Take extra care with her feed at this time. Give her good meat and kibble and follow your veterinarian's advice on calcium and vitamins.

Rich table scraps may be her favorites, but could upset her puppies.

Care to toenails on new puppies is very important. Examine the mother's tummy for scratches and if any appear, cut the puppies' nails with your own nail scissors. Be sure they've been cut at least once by the time the wee ones have their eyes open.

With the opening of the eyes, you may start supplementing their diet. A tiny morsel of good grade ground meat can be placed in a puppy's mouth and usually is devoured instantly.

A few days after offering meat regularly, thin pablum may be offered.

Giving milk to puppies isn't always a good idea. I find that whole milk gives diarrhea, so I use dry milk, well diluted.

Don't forget that puppies lose their natural immunity a week or so after weaning and if you cannot keep them well-isolated, MAY need a shot from your veterinarian.

When the puppies start moving around and want to play (chew), old socks tied in knots, paper towel rollers, and empty food boxes make great toys. Puppies have a tendency to eat plastic so I reserve their use for older dogs.

Any questions?

"Farmer Jones" holds Grand Opening this week

NEW HOME FOR FARMER JONES

The new home of the Farmer Jones Take Out Foods adjoining the Plaza II Theater in the Campbell Plaza Shopping Center will observe its Grand Opening this week.

Owners and operators are Paul Azama and Herb Benkman. Specializing in typical American style foods, they will feature such basics as fried chicken, beef, ribs, hot dogs and others, including pastries.

Founder of the Farmer Jones Food system is W. A. Lombard, who for years operated the famous Restaurant Lombard in San Francisco, favorite with such celebrities Eleanor Roosevelt, Henry Ford and many stars of stage and screen.

Perhaps the outstanding feature of the Farmer Jones menu is their country style fried chicken. Using a specialized chicken cooker that produces a truly fine fried chicken without pressure cooking, this new system turns out golden brown crisp chicken with no grease penetration. An added feature is a special breading using many herbs to give every chicken the gourmet touch.

Although primarily a "take-out" food store, tables and chairs are provided for those who prefer to "eat in" and be served buffet style.

COLONIAL SAVINGS OPENS --- In spacious new quarters at 1510 Winchester Blvd. (just north of Hamilton) adjacent to the location where the firm has been operating from a mobile home for more than a year, Colonial Savings today (April 1) launches a 10-day grand opening program under the direction of Jim Schafer, vice-president of the firm and manager of the Campbell branch.

The photos in the center are from the inside looking out through the arched windows. Some of the results of the "instant-landscaping" can be seen through the windows.

A cosy corner in the plush lobby is depicted in another of the photos while in the lower left a tractor is shown assisting the crane lowering into place one of the 60 20-foot high trees that have been planted around the building.

The lower right is an exterior shot taken from Winchester showing the attractive brick-faced building with many of the trees in place.

CANNING PLANTS

Although California has only 13 per cent of the nation's canning plants, it produces more than one-third of this country's canned fruits and vegetables.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Here's an oddity about the new manager of the Cincinnati Reds, Sparky Anderson . . . When he was appointed manager of the Reds last October, it was his third different job in three days! . . . Up through Oct. 6, he was a coach with the San Diego Padres . . . Then, on Oct. 7, he was named coach with the California Angels . . . Then next day, Oct. 8, he was offered, and accepted the job as manager of Cincinnati!

So many Californians have discovered the extras in Enco Extra gasoline that Humble has dedicated the world's most modern refinery at nearby Benicia, on Friday, October 3, 1969.

California's newest refinery is the climax of more than 2 years construction and decades of research at a cost of $160 million dollars. It has a capacity of 3,000,000 gallons per day. And now, direct to you from this ultra-modern installation will come the Enco Extra gasoline needed to serve a growing California.

Michael Padgett claims Judy Rothwell as bride

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL PADGETT

Miss Judy Ann Rothwell became the bride of Michael Lee Padgett in a double ring ceremony held recently in the First United Methodist Church of Campbell. Performing the ceremony was the Rev. William H. Gould.

For her wedding day Judy wore a full length A-line gown of white brocade with a front panel of layered lace, lace train and leg-o-mutton sleeves. The gown was made by the bride and her friend, Barbara Williams, who also served as bridesmaid. An elbow length veil and bouquet of lilies of the valley, white roses and feathered white carnations completed the wedding picture.

Full length gold velvet gowns trimmed with gold satin bows on the bodices were worn by the four bridal attendants. Miss Lynn Adams in the role of maid of honor carried three long stemmed red roses. Diana Smith, Miss Williams and Janis Jenkins as bridesmaids all carried one red rose.

Judy is the daughter of Edmond J. Rothwell of San Jose and Mrs. Evelyn Hawks of Carlyn Ave., Campbell. She is a graduate of Campbell High School and served as youth director for the Campbell Chamber of Commerce youth employment office. She also graduated from Lawton Dental Assisting School and is presently employed in a local dentist's office.

For the wedding day Mrs. Hawks chose a turquoise knit with a turquoise feathered veil and turquoise accessories, accented with an orchid corsage.

Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Padgett of 3753 Delgado Court. A graduate of Campbell High School, he attends San Jose City College and is employed by Moore Buick in San Jose. Michael chose his oldest brother, Vern, to serve as best man with Gary Padgett, James Rothwell and Mike Rienhart ushering.

Completing the bridal party were Scott Foster of Campbell as ring bearer, wearing a red velvet vest and bow tie and carrying a white brocade pillow; Marla Bryan as flower girl in a full length red velvet with a gold trim bow and carrying white and red roses and Laurie and Chris MacDonald, dressed in long red velvet gowns as candle bearers.

Following the ceremony the newly-weds greeted their friends at a reception held at the church fellowship hall which was decorated with satin ribbons and lilies of the valley. The four-tiered cake was shared by the bride and groom with their 250 guests.

For her wedding trip to northern California, Nevada and Lake Tahoe, the new Mrs. Padgett wore a red, white and blue knit suit. The new Mr. and Mrs. Padgett are now making their home in San Jose.

NOW YOU SEE---DISAPPEAR---The Great Sultan will appear in a magic show at the San Tomas School, 1510 Hacienda Ave., Saturday, April 4. AS YOUR CITY COUNCILMAN
(ELECTION — APRIL 14)

RALPH DOETSCH
--Incumbent

Elected for the first time to the City Council in 1960 (as a write-in candidate in that election he topped the field.) DOETSCH was reelected in 1964 by an overwhelming vote of confidence. He is now seeking reelection.

• CONSCIENTIOUS
• TRUSTWORTHY
• DEPENDABLE

He has proved his worth to the City of Campbell by his eight years of conscientious service as a councilman.
We feel he is deserving of reelection as the many objectives he has worked for are now beginning to materialize.

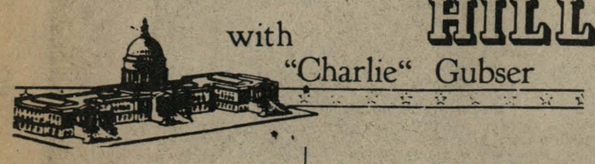
ON CAPITOL HILL



with "Charlie" Gubser

Only a few moments after President Nixon announced on March 23 that he would send troops into New York City to break the illegal postal strike, the House of Representatives erupted into an orgy of finger pointing. Democrats blamed the President for the strike and Republicans blamed the Democratic leadership for bottling up pay bills.

One of the more stable and rational voices was that of the Honorable Morris Udall (D-Ariz.) who said, "....if we are going to start assessing the blame....there will be enough to go around. But there is one lesson that is clear to me:.... the old annual congressional pay fight system of fixing pay just will not do."

It would be easy to blame the strike on outside agitators like the SDS, the Black Panthers, union politics, Congress or the President. But as Udall has pointed out, the fault is in the system.

Back in 1933 James A. Farley, Postmaster General under Franklin D. Roosevelt said wages of postal employees were too low and they have been too low since. In 1953 as a member of the Post Office Committee, I soon recognized the inequity of the present pay system.

Postal jobs in states like Mississippi are desirable and much sought after. But the same job at the same pay in San Francisco Bay Area simply isn't enough to allow a postal worker to feed his children and live decently. So I introduced a bill to set postal salaries by area surveys as they are for wage board federal employees (sometimes referred to as blue collar workers).

Under this system, a shipyard worker at Mare Island receives higher pay than a man doing the same job in a southern state. But his "real income", considering his higher cost of living, is the same.

My bill got nowhere because union leaders, like politicians, have constituencies. Obviously their political futures would be dismal if they favored giving their constituents from one state less pay than those in another area.

Last October the House passed a bill to establish a salary commission which would automatically adjust postal salaries once each year. The Senate also approved this idea in a slightly different form but postal committee leaders dragged their feet and did not compromise the two versions. Just a few weeks ago the House postal committee recommended still another bill which called for the setting of salaries by a commission instead of Congress.

As a practical matter the right of postal workers to strike is now established. If it happened once, and produced results, it is certain to happen again. So now it is even more obvious that the old system, whereby union leaders annually pressure Congress to raise salaries, must be changed. Hopefully it will be replaced by an automatic system which takes the cost of living in different areas into account. Until this happens, I fear that seeds have been planted which will bloom annually–in postal chaos.

Census Day

Today (April 1) is Census Day for the United States of America.

From Aroostook County, Maine, to Niihau, the westernmost island of Hawaii; from Point Barrow, Alaska, on the Arctic Ocean to Key West, Florida, it is the day for all Americans to be counted.

Today, April 1, 1970, is the day every household should fill out their census form, and in this area they should mail it back in the brown, postpaid envelope provided.

Everybody must be counted. You are your own census taker. Fill out your census form, mail it, and count yourself into America's grand population total.

All census information is confidential. Every census employee is sworn to silence. No one outside the Census Bureau may see the individual census forms, nor may the Census Bureau give the information to any other Government agency or to anyone for any purpose whatever.

• Understanding Female class

Registration is still open for a four-week course on the female revolution and its effect on marriage and the individual, to begin at West Valley College April 2.

During the four Thursday night sessions (7-10 p.m.), such topics as the management of finances, vocational guidance, family involvement and the female revolution will be discussed.

This symposium is a result of the dilemma women face today. They must choose whether they wish to return to school and finish their interrupted education, begin working on a full-time basis or remain at home doing volunteer work.

Miss Phyllis Williams, sociology instructor at the college, will coordinate the course.

Interested residents of the district may register for the course at the Office of Community Services, 44 E. Latimer Ave., Campbell, room L-26, telephone 379-1733, ext. 58.

Enrollment is limited and applications will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

Rotary club holds lunch meet at Billy Jones railroad station

Campbell Rotarians and guests held their first outdoor meeting of the year, Monday, at the Los Gatos' Oak Meadow Park in the almost-completed Billy Jones Wildcat Railroad Station. Lunch was served, picnic style, by a small group of Campbell JayCettes, headed up by Mrs. Jeanne Kennedy and Mrs. Claudia Smith.

Following lunch, the local service club was given a tour of the roundhouse, station, coachhouse, bridge, and right-of-way in Vasona Park. Conducting the tour were Rotarians Myron Alexander, Al Smith, Don Callihan, and Bill Mason, railroad president and Los Gatos Rotary Club member. Proceeds of the picnic were donated to the Mini-Railroad construction fund.

The Billy Jones Wildcat Railroad is a non-profit corporation who has purchased the 18" gauge, live steam locomotive and cars of the late Billy Jones and is setting up a small railroad at Vasona and Oak Meadow parks for the pleasure of all young and old children of Santa Clara County. The small prarie-type locomotive will pull some four to five coaches around the two parks on almost a mile loop of right-of-way. Opening date will coincide with a gala celebration and golden spike ceremony at Oak Meadow Park on June 21.

All of the progress to date has been possible because of generous donations of time, money, materials by many service clubs, individuals and businessmen. Volunteers work every Saturday with extra days being scheduled as necessary to meet the June deadline.

District science fair opens April 4 at Castlemont

Campbell Union School District's thirteenth annual Science Fair will be held Saturday, April 4 at Castlemont School.

Coordinated by Art Ring, district science consultant, the Fair expects to display 240 projects from 19 local public schools and St. Lucy's School.

Judges who have accepted invitations to participate include: Dr. Patrick Baymiller of Central Animal Hospital, Dr. Phillip Haims, Santa Clara County Health Department veterinarian, Dr. Leo Hombach, Santa Clara University biology department, Don Stover, West Valley College Science faculty, Robert Sneed, local resident and research engineer for Varian Assoc., Carl Merriman, General Electric, Margaret Mangano, school nurse, Karen Coy, school nurse.

Dick Neher, Cypress School science instructor; Asst. Prof. Lawrence Schmidt, California State College at Hayward; Matt Pendo, science instructor; Fay Mihasa, science instructor; Fred Peterson, principal of Rolling Hills School; Carl Miescke, Santa Clara County Coordinator of Elementary Science; Bill Kumagai, Castlemont School teacher, formerly an engineer.

Chief of Police John Morgan will make awards to the winning entries. Classifications include: Biological Science, Physical Science and Earth Science.

Three winners in each grade level in each category will be chosen. Four winners and three honorable mentions will be made from each division.

"Eighty percent of the points will be determined on what the children have learned by this experience", said Ring. During the past weeks, they have participated in preliminary judgings and following the Fair, many will be used as resource people and asked to demonstrate for classmates.

Some of the projects will be "saved" on video tape for future use.

Obtaining judges from the community is a new procedure this year. Formerly all judges were teachers within the district.

The categories have been altered slightly to allow for the strong interest in pollution, astronomy, ancient life and other earth sciences, some of whom were previously considered physical.

Ring hopes to have a public science forum later this spring to allow members of the community to share the young peoples ideas.

The Science Fair will be open from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., with the award assembly concluding the event.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR---George H. Williamson, Jr., 33, has been named executive director of the Santa Clara County Taxpayers Association, succeeding Dale H. Scott, of Campbell, who held the position for eight years. Scott is now a candidate for Santa Clara County Assessor.

Williamson attended Los Gatos High and was graduated from San Jose State in 1960. He and his wife, Judith Ann, and daughter reside in San Jose.

IN HER FATHER'S MEMORY---Mrs. Ted Schenk, the former Joan Whitehouse, shows off one of the lovely camelia plants raised by her father, Henry Whitehouse, at his home on Sunnyside Ave. The plants have now been donated to the city of Campbell in memory of her father who passed away Nov. 10, 1969. When the new city complex is completed, the shrubs will be part of the new landscaping.

Camelia, roses bushes donated by Mrs. Schenk

In the summer of 1920 Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Whitehouse moved with their daughter, Joan, to a modest frame house on Sunnyside Ave. Here the Whitehouses developed an extensive camelia and rose garden. Whitehouse worked for the Ainsley Packing Corporation and Mrs. Whitehouse was in charge of the children's nursery across the street from the cannery.

A native of Turis Hill House, Sedgley, Worcester, England, Whitehouse married his wife, the former Lydia Marks of Lincoln, England, and brought her to California in 1919.

When the Ainsley Corp. closed, Whitehouse worked for the United States Products Corp in San Jose as assistant superintendent and later retired in 1961 at the age of 72. Mrs. Whitehouse died in 1967 and he passed away Nov. 10, 1969.

Throughout his life he had enjoyed his garden, and it is his daughter's wish that others enjoy it also. Recently the daughter, now Mrs. Ted Schenk of Los Gatos, donated the lovely mature shrubs to the city of Campbell, and after the new city hall is built, the shrubs will be placed in a special corner where they will continue to give others pleasure.
